使徒行传 10:1 - 23

核心要点

使徒行传第 10

章被确认为使徒行传中的关键转折点，标志着神刻意向外邦人开启福音之门，通过哥尼流和彼得两个平行的生命转变来实现。本次学习涵盖了 1-23

节，探讨神如何通过异象和神圣指引同时预备这两个人。研究得出两个核心教训：需要突破个人、文化和传统的界限，以及即使在不完全理解的情况下也要顺服神。

作出的决定

- 第 10

章被确认为使徒行传中最关键的一章，代表福音从犹太人和混血的撒玛利亚人群体突破到完全的外邦人宣教。

- 哥尼流和彼得都需要转变——研究明确拒绝单方面的解读；神在同时改变这两个人。

- 异象的重点不是食物——

彼得异象（布中的不洁净动物）的深层含义被解释为神宣告外邦人在属灵上是可接纳的，而非饮食改革。

- 天使不被用来直接传讲福音——

神的模式是透过人作为同工来工作，而非绕过人的参与，即使天使理论上可以传递信息。

涵盖的神学内容

使徒行传 10:1-8——哥尼流的介绍

- 哥尼流是意大利营的罗马百夫长——一个有社会地位、经济实力和真诚虔诚的人。

- 他被描述为虔诚、敬畏神、慷慨济贫且恒切祷告——

这些品质使他区别于法利赛人等虚伪的宗教领袖。

- 提出的核心问题：一个道德高尚的人仍然需要福音吗？

- 与福音书中的富有的少年官作平行对比——
一个遵守了所有律法却仍缺少某些关键东西的人。
- 与孔子、老子等受尊敬的道德人物作比较——
即使是这样的人物仍然需要遇见基督。
- 关键神学要点：神看内心，而非外在行为。没有人能达到神所要求的完全——
"你们要完全，像你们的天父完全一样。"
 - 除基督教外，所有世界宗教都教导靠善行得救；圣经教导的是因信称义的恩典，而非人的努力或资格。
 - 每个人都"亏缺了神的荣耀"——
即使是最有德行的人内心也怀有仇恨、嫉妒、恐惧或怨恨。

使徒行传 10:9-16——彼得的异象

- 彼得在中午时分在屋顶上祷告，感到饥饿时进入魂游象外的状态，看见一块大布从天降下，里面有各样动物——包括摩西律法下仪式上不洁净的动物。
- 有声音吩咐他："彼得，起来，宰了吃！"彼得三次拒绝，引用犹太律法禁止吃不洁净动物的规定。
- 彼得的拒绝被解释为不是悖逆而是真诚的困惑和文化条件反射——
他一生遵守利未记的食物律法使这个命令难以理解。
- 关键经文——使徒行传 10:15："神所洁净的，你不可当作俗物。"*
 - 这个声明适用于人，而不仅仅是食物——
神在表明通过基督得洁净的外邦人不再被视为"俗"或不洁净。
 - 耶稣之前教导过同样的原则："入口的不能污秽人"——污秽来自内心。
- 异象出现了三次——被解释为神的强调和彼得的深度抗拒。
 - 值得注意的平行：彼得也曾三次不认主，耶稣复活后三次问"你爱我吗？"——
这是彼得生命中三重恢复和教导的重复模式。

使徒行传 10:17-23——仆人到达；彼得回应

- 当彼得还在思想异象的意义时，哥尼流的仆人到达门口——
这是神两个平行工作时机惊人的汇合。
- 圣灵明确告诉彼得："有三个人来找你。起来，下去，和他们同往，不要疑惑，因为是我差他们来的。"

- 彼得询问这些人的来意；听到关于哥尼流的天使异象和他的品格后，彼得邀请他们进来作客——这是一个文化上意义重大的行为。
 - 按照犹太习俗，与外邦人交往、进入他们的家或共餐是禁忌和被禁止的。
 - 通过在自己作客的风子里接待外邦陌生人为客，彼得跨越了一个重大的文化界限——他的转变已经开始。
- 第二天彼得与他们同行，并有约帕的几个弟兄同去。

为什么神使用人而非天使

- 神本可以使用天使直接向哥尼流传讲福音，但选择不这样做。
- 神的模式是与他的子民同工——
他邀请人参与他的使命不仅仅是为了效率，而是为了同时转变参与者。
- 使徒保罗称自己为“神的同工”——
信徒被呼召作见证人来见证耶稣是谁、传讲福音、使人作门徒并教导圣经。
- 神使用彼得有双重目的：接触哥尼流并深化彼得的转变。

神对外邦人的原初心意

- 神对万国的爱从起初就已确立——不是新约的创新。
- 在摩西时代，神呼召以色列成为祭司的国度——
一个站在神和外邦世界之间的中保国度，作为祝福万民的管道。
- 以色列未能完成这个呼召：犹太宗教传统（犹太教）筑起了对外邦人的敌意之墙，将他们视为不洁——与神的心意相反。
- 是人的传统而非神的心意造成了彼得需要克服的障碍。

得出的两个核心教训

教训一——突破个人和文化界限

- 每个人都在自我定义的界限内运作，这些界限由国籍、文化、种族、性格、家庭背景和社会阶层塑造。
- 举例：知识分子家庭看不起蓝领工人；只在自己“圈层”内互动的社交圈子。
- 神呼召信徒突破这些圈层——
跨越阶级、种族和文化界限去爱和连接，正如彼得被呼召去做的。

教训二——在不完全理解的情况下顺服神

- 彼得在完全理解或接受之前就顺服了神的命令——他仍有文化上的抗拒，但他采取了行动。
 - 与约拿作平行对比：约拿明白神的旨意但不愿意——彼得同样可能明白但抗拒。
 - 呼召是相信神的旨意超越我们的理解："我的道路高过你们的道路，我的意念高过你们的意念。"
 - 根植于与神关系和信任的顺服使人即使在不确定中也能行动。

待确认/未决问题

- 本次学习仅涵盖使徒行传 10:1-23；下一部分（哥尼流一家领受福音和圣灵）被确认为一个完整单元，将在未来的聚会中涵盖。
 - 关于彼得是否完全理解异象还是仅仅在不情愿中行动的问题留作开放的解释点——教师倾向于彼得理解但在文化上抗拒。

Logos Meeting

Acts 10:1 - 23

Key Outcomes

Acts 10 was identified as a pivotal turning point in the book of Acts, marking God's deliberate opening of the Gospel to the Gentiles through two parallel transformations — one in Cornelius and one in Peter. The study covered verses 1–23, examining how God prepared both men simultaneously through visions and divine instruction. Two core lessons were drawn: the need to break through personal, cultural, and traditional boundaries, and the call to obey God even without full understanding.

Decisions Made

- Chapter 10 identified as the most critical chapter in Acts, representing the Gospel's breakthrough from Jewish and mixed-race Samaritan audiences to full Gentile outreach.
 - Both Cornelius and Peter required transformation — the study explicitly rejected a one-sided reading; God was simultaneously changing both men.
 - The vision was not about food — the deeper meaning of Peter's vision (unclean animals in a sheet) was interpreted as God declaring Gentiles spiritually acceptable, not a dietary reform.
 - Angels were not used to preach the Gospel directly — God's pattern is to work through people as co-workers, not bypass human agency, even when angels could theoretically deliver the message.

Theological Content Covered

Acts 10:1–8 — Cornelius Introduced

- Cornelius was a Roman centurion of the Italian Regiment — a man of social rank, financial means, and genuine piety.

- He was described as devout, God-fearing, generous to the poor, and consistent in prayer — qualities that distinguished him from hypocritical religious leaders like the Pharisees.
- The central question raised: Does a morally upright person still need the Gospel?
 - Parallel drawn to the Rich Young Ruler in the Gospels — a man who kept all the laws yet still lacked something essential.
 - Comparison made to respected moral figures like Confucius and Laozi — even such individuals still need to encounter Christ.
- Key theological point: God sees the heart, not outward behavior. No human being can achieve the perfection God requires — "Be perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect."
 - All world religions except Christianity teach salvation by good works; the Bible teaches salvation by grace through faith, not by human effort or qualification.
 - Everyone is "short of God's glory" — even the most virtuous person harbors internal hatred, jealousy, fear, or resentment.

Acts 10:9–16 — Peter's Vision

- Peter was praying on the rooftop around noon, hungry, when he fell into a trance and saw a large sheet descending from heaven containing all kinds of animals — including ceremonially unclean animals under Mosaic Law.
- A voice commanded him: "Get up, Peter. Kill and eat." Peter refused three times, citing Jewish law against eating unclean animals.
- Peter's refusal was interpreted not as rebellion but as genuine confusion and cultural conditioning — his lifelong observance of Levitical food laws made the command incomprehensible.
- Key verse — Acts 10:15: "Do not call anything impure that God has made clean."
 - This statement applies to people, not just food — God was signaling that Gentiles, cleansed through Christ, are no longer to be considered "common" or unclean. 5
 - Jesus had previously taught the same principle: "What goes into someone's mouth does not defile them" — defilement comes from the heart.
- The vision appeared three times — interpreted as both God's emphasis and Peter's deep resistance.

- Notable parallel: Peter also denied Jesus three times, and Jesus asked "Do you love me?" three times after the resurrection — a recurring pattern of threefold restoration and instruction in Peter's life.

Acts 10:17–23 — The Servants Arrive; Peter Responds

- While Peter was still puzzling over the vision's meaning, Cornelius's servants arrived at the gate — a remarkably timed convergence of God's two parallel workings.
- The Holy Spirit explicitly told Peter: "Three men are looking for you. Do not hesitate to go with them, for I have sent them."
- Peter asked the men their purpose; upon hearing about Cornelius's angelic vision and his character, Peter invited them inside as guests — a culturally significant act.
 - Under Jewish custom, associating with Gentiles, entering their homes, or sharing meals was taboo and forbidden.
 - By hosting Gentile strangers as guests in a house where he himself was a guest, Peter crossed a major cultural boundary — his transformation had already begun.
- Peter then traveled with them the next day, accompanied by several brothers from Joppa.

Why God Used People, Not Angels

- God could have used the angel to preach the Gospel directly to Cornelius, but chose not to.
- God's pattern is co-working with his people — he invites humans to participate in his mission not merely for efficiency but to simultaneously transform the participants.
- The Apostle Paul described himself as a "co-worker of God" — believers are called as witnesses to testify who Jesus is, preach the Gospel, make disciples, and teach Scripture.
- God's use of Peter served a dual purpose: reaching Cornelius and deepening Peter's transformation.

God's Original Heart for the Gentiles

- God's love for all nations was established from the beginning — not a New Testament innovation.
- In Moses' time, God called Israel to be a kingdom of priests — a mediating nation standing between God and the Gentile world, serving as a channel of blessing to all peoples.

- Israel failed this calling: Jewish religious tradition (Judaism) built walls of hostility toward Gentiles, treating them as unclean — the opposite of God's intent.
 - This human tradition, not God's heart, created the barrier Peter needed to overcome.

Two Core Lessons Drawn

Lesson 1 — Breaking Through Personal and Cultural Boundaries

- Every person operates within self-defined boundaries shaped by nationality, culture, ethnicity, personality, family background, and social class.
- Examples given: intellectual families looking down on blue-collar workers; social circles that only interact within their own "layer" (圈层).
- God calls believers to break through these layers — to love and connect across class, ethnicity, and cultural lines, as Peter was called to do.

Lesson 2 — Obeying God Without Full Understanding

- Peter obeyed God's command before fully understanding or accepting it — he still had cultural resistance, yet he acted.
 - Parallel drawn to Jonah: Jonah understood God's will but was unwilling — Peter similarly may have understood but resisted.
 - The call is to trust that God's purposes exceed our comprehension: "My ways are higher than your ways, my thoughts higher than your thoughts."
 - Obedience rooted in relationship and trust with God enables action even amid uncertainty.

Pending Confirmation / Open Questions

- The study covered only Acts 10:1–23; the next section (Cornelius's household receiving the Gospel and the Spirit) was identified as a complete unit to be covered in a future session.
- The question of whether Peter fully understood the vision or merely acted despite reluctance was left as an open interpretive point — the teacher leaned toward Peter understanding but resisting culturally.
